

CELEBRATING CANADIAN MUSICAL ARTISTS

Research a Canadian musician, composer or producer.

Include biographical information, their work highlights, factors that influenced them and their importance within the Canadian music industry.

1. Take point form notes IN YOUR OWN WORDS. - due at end of class March 27
2. Keep (and submit) an ongoing list of your sources (books include title and author, websites include full URL). -due at end of class March 27
3. Write a two page report (IN YOUR OWN WORDS) on your musician. - due April 4
4. Prepare a 5 minute presentation that includes important information about the artist and 3 music samples. Explain why these music samples are important (how do they reflect the musician's work and their importance). - April 4 and 11

Reports and notes that are not in your own words will received a mark of 0**

	Level 4	Level 3	Level 2	Level 1
Point Form Notes 20%	Detailed In your own words Organized by category	Detailed In your own words	In your own words Limited amount	Copying from sources Limited amount
Sources list 10%	Uses multiple sources (4+) Complete information about sources	Complete information about sources Multiple sources (3)	Some sources (2) Some information about sources	1 source Limited information about sources
Written Report 50%	Extremely well written and organized report on artist includes all aspects.	Well written and organized report on artist	Report includes some information written in your own words.	Report includes limited information.
Presentation 20%	Selects most important information. Thoroughly explains importance of 3 music samples	Selects most important information. Explains importance of 3 music samples	Some information shared. Limited explanation of 3 samples.	Limited information and explanation. Fewer than 3 samples

Final Mark:

Comment:

Parent Signature: